

PARKING PERMITS IN CHESTER GREEN

You may have seen notices up and around Chester Green stating that the cost for residents' parking permits is changing. For areas that currently pay for permits, this is, indeed, the case, and the council has a legal obligation to advertise the changes at all locations covered by parking permit schemes.

However, the permits in Chester Green will remain free until a decision has been made on whether the scheme will remain in place or not following a consultation exercise. It is hoped that this consultation will be carried out during the 2023-24 financial year.

LITTLE CHESTER HISTORY GROUP

How amazing that our lovely county had so many "firsts" on the world stage.

The first aircraft engine that powered the first transatlantic flight by Alcock and Brown, the first female photographer, the Plimsoll line for ship safety instituted by the then Derby MP, the first photo taken in a cave with a new flash, the bouncing bomb immortalised in The Dambusters, and more recently, Lara Croft.

The next meeting is at 7.30 in the Community Centre on April 20th.
The talk is on "Guide Dogs for the Blind"
All will be very welcome.

THANK YOU!!!

A massive thanks to the huge number of people who helped look for my little dog Charlie who went missing! Thanks to those who found her and took her to Vets4Pets. Thanks to Vicar James who gave St Paul's congregation his blessing to leave the service to hunt, thanks for prayers from the rest. Thanks to Bruce for filling social media with appeals then the good news. Thanks to four local chaps and rope, and then in addition someone passing, his wife, four children and two dogs, for lifting up my fence, propping it up and tying it to prevent Charlie from escaping again. What a fantastic community we live in.

Thank you.
